New Haven, Conn., June 19.—Not in years, if ever, has there been so much excitement at Yale on class day as there was to-day. This was not occasioned by the fantastic rigs in which the alumning appeared, but by the news of the call to be binding. The common sense of the judge is not far away from the common sense of the mass of the people. Common sense is not the same in all as princes and pirates, crusaders or what not, immediately began to consult time tables and prepared to go to their home towns.

Four members of the varsity crew at New London were recalled to New Haven by Adjt.-Gen. Cowles as members of the call to be binding. The common sense is not the same in all asper."
